

Genius in Our Stories: 2024 African American Read-In and STEMi Experience

FEATURED AUTHOR/ ILLUSTRATOR DON TATE

Don Tate is an award-winning illustrator of numerous critically acclaimed books for children, including Swish! The Slam-Dunking, Alley-Ooping, High-Flying Harlem Globetrotters, No Small Potatoes: Junios G. Groves and His Kingdom in Kansas, Whoosh! Lonnie Johnson's Super-Soaking Stream of Inventions, Hope's Gift, and many others.

Thursday, Feb. 29, 2024
4:00 - 6:45 P.M.: STEMi Experience, Tour & Dinner (STEMi truck experience ends at 6pm)

6:45 - 8:00 P.M.: Reading
OSTC Northeast

1371 Perry St., Pontiac, MI 48340

Register at bit.ly/2024-read-in-ws

Oakland Schools is proud to host author/illustrator Don Tate as our guest for this year's African American Read-In. This award winning author/illustrator has a vast collection of books for readers of all ages. The first 500 Oakland County students who register will receive one copy of Don Tate's book Jerry Changed The Game.

Additionally, students will be able to tour the Oakland Schools STEMi Mobile Innovation Station, featuring high-end industry equipment, staff with subject matter expertise, and an engaging hands-on experience that will spark students interest in engineering practices, build career awareness and self-efficacy. Experience robotics, augmented reality, health sciences, self-driving cars and more.

2111 PONTIAC LAKE RD. WATERFORD, MI 48328 | OAKLAND.K12.MI.US | 248.209.2000